The Pastor's Letter

Dear Trinity,

As I write this, the election is one week away. As you read this, it will be even closer, and maybe has even already happened (especially likely if I mail you the Trumpet). I'm feeling the effects of being in a swing state. I've gotten multiple "I'm so glad you live in Michigan" texts from various friends and family members from across the country. I've commiserated with my other swing state friends and family about the pressure of being in the nation's spotlight. I've joked about how I can't wait to get regular commercials back so I can know about the latest medication whose side effect is death. And I've already made plans for election day including how we will vote, when we will vote, and what we will have for dinner (Tim Walz's Tater Tot Casserole. I will share the recipe, because regardless of what you think of Walz or who you're voting for, it's a VERY GOOD tater tot casserole).

More concerning to me than the election is the vitriol that has surrounded it, on all sides and at every level. I obviously don't personally know Donald Trump or Kamala Harris, or even Elissa Slotkin or Mike Rogers, so I cannot speak to the truth of any of their advertising. But I do know both Jim Haadsma and Steve Frisbie. I have served on committees with both men, and I can personally attest that neither has horns. So, the extremist ads against both, rather than causing me to question either of them, cause me to question the extremism of every ad.

Elections have consequences. As I have mentioned several times recently, your vote for president is important, but so is your vote for Water Resource Commissioner (or Michigan House Representative). And the Water Resource Commissioner vote may have more impact on your day-to-day life, the federal government has no impact on, or interest in, the maintenance of Calhoun County drains. But regardless of who is elected to any position on November 5th, we're all going to have to live together at the end of this. I will continue to sit across the table from Steve at KCC EMS Advisory meetings, I will continue to run into Jim at community events. Both men will, I'm sure, continue to be great advocates for Co-op and contributors to the well-being of our community, whether from the Michigan House or from their current occupations.

I encourage you to look past the attack rhetoric as you make your decisions on who to vote for, first because looking past the rhetoric is important to help you make an educated decision. But second, because all the rhetoric is doing is fueling an increasingly polarized society where we see each other not as fellow children of God, but as opponents. As Bishop Eaton reminds us, "We are not defined by our political affiliations but by our shared baptism and our commitment to the Gospel. As people of faith, we are called to engage in our communities and work for justice and to advocate for the dignity and well-being of all people." Bishop Eaton added, "One way we do this is by voting, ensuring that our voices are heard, as we shape our society together." But once our vote is cast, there are other ways we continue in this work. By loving our neighbor, by listening well, by looking past the rhetoric to the true concerns fueling them. And, most importantly, by doing our part to bring down the temperature of the dialogue. We need to advocate for peace and calm, because rage only benefits the powerful.

The next few weeks and months are going to be stressful regardless of the outcome. Elections take time to calculate, and there are a LOT of votes to count. So, I encourage you to do your best to not get too caught up in the waiting. Elijah's snack and nap philosophy is always a good one. But also, if you start to feel anxious, channel your energy into making change in the ways you can. Volunteer at the food pantry (our day is the first Tuesday) or at Pete's Pantry on a different Tuesday. Clean out your closet and give the extras to Co-op. Call someone you think might be lonely just to check in (if you've missed seeing someone at church recently, that could be a good place to start). Call to congratulate Steve or Jim and let them know the issues that are of most concern to you. And try Tim Walz's Tater Tot casserole, because those Minnesotans do make a mean hot dish!

Peace,
Pastor Kjersten

TIM WALZ'S TURKEY TROT TATER-TOT HOTDISH

1 lb of fresh green beans, diced
 4 slices of bacon
 1 clove of garlic, finely chopped
 6 tbsp. butter
 5-6 tbsp. flour
 2 ½ cups whole milk
 ½ cup half and half
 2 tsp. salt
 3 cups shredded sharp cheddar cheese
 1 lb ground turkey
 ½ tsp. sage
 1 tsp. pepper
 1 egg
 1 tbsp. olive oil
 ½ cup green onions
 ¼ cup chopped onions
 1 ½ cup chopped baby bella mushrooms
 1 package tater tots

Preheat the oven to 375° F.

Put ground turkey into a medium bowl and mix-in garlic, sage, green onions, egg, pepper, and 1 tsp salt

Heat olive oil in a 10-inch skillet, and then cook the seasoned turkey mixture at 165° F until well done, then place cooked turkey in a 9-by-13-inch baking dish.

Blanch the green beans in boiling water for 2-3 minutes, then plunging beans into ice water. Once cool, drain completely and gently mix them into baking dish.

Fry the bacon until crispy, then chop into ¼-inch pieces before adding into baking dish.

Heat 2 tbsp. of butter. Once the butter foam subsides, add mushrooms to the melted butter.

Gently stir butter and mushrooms for 4-5 minutes, or for about 2 minutes after browning point. Remove from heat and add to the baking dish.

In a sauce pan, melt remaining butter over medium heat and sprinkle flour into the butter. Let cook for 2 minutes, then slowly whisk in milk and half and half. Cook for 2 more minutes, then add diced onions and salt and pepper. After a minute, stir in 2 ½ cups of cheese until melted.

Pour cheese mixture over the ingredients in the baking dish.

Scatter tater tots and remaining cheese over top of the baking dish.

Bake for 45 minutes or until golden brown.

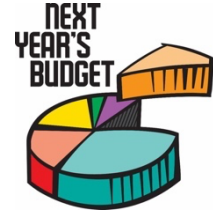

---

Note: I used veggie crumbles in place of ground turkey and omitted the bacon to make it vegetarian. Travis liked it, even without meat.

Council Vacancy

As previously announced, Teresa Momenee-Young resigned from the Council to allow her more time to devote to the Community Center board. In addition, we are saddened by the death of long time Trinity member Kathy Chapman who was also on the Council. The Synod advises for congregations our size an eight-member council. Therefore, we are only filling one position at this time. If you are interested in running, please contact JoAnn Rusan. The election will be at the December 8, 2024, congregational meeting.

Congregational Meeting

A Congregational Meeting is scheduled for immediately after the service on Sunday, December 8, for the purpose of adopting the 2024 Budget and electing a council member to fill a vacancy. A copy of the proposed budget is provided for you to study and prepare any possible questions before the meeting.

Intent Sunday/Community Center Update

On Sunday, October 20, pledges of time, talents and financial support were presented at the end of the service. During our soup and sandwich luncheon that followed, Bob Kamphuis came and shared an update on the progress of the community center. A brief summary follows:

- The usual wait time is 6 months, we probably have 4 months left before hearing from the IRS. He is cautiously optimistic about our approval. The only snag might be that they require more information.
- Even though there are 4 months left, we can still start the work of setting up the center. The Board will be identified and meeting soon.
- There are several topics the Board can tackle, such as finding community members to serve, who is responsible for the maintenance of the building, etc, and identifying other partners (Ex: The Congolese community now worshiping in our building on Sunday afternoons.)
- We are generating a lot of excitement within the Synod as evidenced by his church, St. Paul in Greenville, becoming our new mission partner.
- We currently have 13 pledges totaling $56,590.

CROP Walk – Sunday, September 29th

On a beautiful Sunday afternoon, several Trinity faithful gathered with others around the city at Leila Arboretum to take part in the annual CROP Walk for Hunger. Organized by the ever-dedicated Kathy Chapman, walkers Pastor Kjersten, Gloria, Kendra, Levi, and Lola represented Trinity. Many others contributed financially to the effort. Money raised by the CROP Walk goes to support hunger efforts both locally and around the world.

Looking back on the CROP Walk this year is bittersweet, as it turns out to have been our last organized by Kathy. She was the stalwart organizer of our CROP Walk effort every year, and we will miss her.

Election Day 2024 – Tuesday, November 5

Tuesday, November 5th is Election Day. First and foremost, get out and vote! In addition to the presidential race, there are many statewide and local elections. You can find out your polling location and see a sample ballot at the Secretary of State website: <https://www.michigan.gov/sos/>.

If you live in Precinct 1, Trinity is your poll location (Post Addition, Bell Street to Illinois, and north to Roosevelt). Since we will have many of our neighbors in the building to cast their votes, Trinity thought we should show them some hospitality. We are hosting a Hospitality Table in the entryway with coffee and snacks. Please sign up to sit for a few hours and welcome our neighbors. You can also donate cookies or other snacks to share (Halloween candy is always a hit!)

ROAD RUNNERS

On November 21 Road Runners will meet at Coney Island on Capital Ave NE at 11:30 am. Come out and enjoy good conversation and great food. ALL are welcome so come and bring a friend.

Under One Roof

On November 16th at 4:00 we will once again gather for "Under One Roof" with the Woman's Co-Op and the KCC computer class. There is a Sign-Up sheet in the Narthex. Sign up, list how many are coming and what covered dish you will be bringing. Ham and turkey will be provided. Hope we have a nice turnout from both Trinity and the Woman's Co-Op. Come and mingle, have fun and enjoy a Pre-Thanksgiving meal.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT LAST MONTH ... PART 1

We now have 3 acolytes lighting the candles on Sunday Morning. They are: Emily Hickey, Leah Hickey and Emerson Ralston. These young ladies are a welcome addition to our pre-service and post-service. Please let them know what a great job they are doing.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT LAST MONTH ... PART 2

Sunday October 13 was Clergy Appreciation Sunday so of course we celebrated with cake!!

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT LAST MONTH ... PART 3

Sunday, October 20, was our annual stewardship Sunday when members submit their intents for the 2025 year. The Children's Sermon focused on our giving gifts of our time and talents in addition to our dollars.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT LAST MONTH ... PART 4

Reformation Sunday was celebrated on October 27. Not only were the paraments red, but we dressed in red to celebrate Martin Luther and his 95 Theses.

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT LAST MONTH ... PART 5

Road Runners visited a new restaurant in October. We gathered at Sand Hill in Marshall where we all enjoyed the baked potato skins that had a secret ingredient – maple syrup!! The syrup gave them just a smidge of sweetness!! We also celebrated Tish's birthday a day early!!

Ronnie Cung Concert

We all enjoy Ronnie's music every Sunday and we have an extra special opportunity to hear him perform on Saturday, November 23 at 3:00 pm in Kalamazoo. It's a free concert and promises to be a wonderful way to spend a Saturday afternoon.

A concert poster for Ronnie Cung. The top section is light beige with a faint grid pattern. It reads "Crescendo Academy of Music Presents:" followed by "Ronald Cung in Recital" in a cursive font. Below that, it says "Featuring works by W.A. Mozart · Franz Schubert · Claude Debussy". The middle section shows a photograph of a concert hall with blue seats and a stage. A circular inset on the right shows a portrait of Ronnie Cung, a man in a suit and tie. The bottom section is light beige and contains the date and time: "Nov 23, 2024 3:00 pm", the venue: "Crescendo Academy of Music 359 S. Kalamazoo Mall downtown Kalamazoo", and the admission: "Free admission". It also mentions "Reception to follow concert".

RECIPE CORNER

Chicken Galette (AKA “Hot Salad”)

Toss in a large bowl:

½ Onion, thinly sliced

6 C. Swiss Chard or Baby Spinach (stemless, torn)

Rotisserie Chicken Breast – shredded

Red Sweet Bell Pepper – sliced

2T Olive Oil

Fold in:

3 oz Feta Cheese (about 2/3 Cup, add more if you like)

½ Tsp Kosher Salt

Roll a refrigerated pie crust into a 14” circle on parchment paper.

Slide onto a cookie sheet.

Spoon salad mixture onto crust with a 2 ½” border.

Fold the edges of crust over & brush with 1 beaten egg.

Bake at 400 degrees for 25 – 30 minutes.

Use a pizza cutter to cut into wedges to serve.

Holiday Buffet Food Smart Tips

Since the holiday season is almost here, we're sharing these tips to keep our celebrations safe:

- Size Matters
  - Keep buffet portion servings small when you aren't sure how quickly the food will be eaten.
  - Store cold back-up dishes in the fridge and keep hot dishes warming in the oven.
- Take Temperatures
  - Use a food thermometer often to ensure hot foods are 135 degrees or hotter and cold foods are 40 degrees F or colder.
- Keep it Fresh
  - Don't add new food to a nearly empty service dish. Instead replace nearly empty service dishes with clean, freshly filled ones.
  - Clean serving utensils when replacing service dishes.
- Watch the Clock
  - Perishable food should be discarded after being left out at room temperature for more than 2 hours.
- Adapt "Old Family Recipes"
  - Some traditional recipes, such as custards or eggnog, call for raw or slightly cooked eggs. You can adapt the recipe by using pasteurized eggs, or by adding eggs to the recipe and heating the mixture until it reaches 160 degrees F on a food thermometer.
  - Use store-bought products, which are often already cooked or pasteurized.

Thank you, Laurie Swanson, for sharing these timely tips.

Adult Theological Education: Winter 2025

Time for another great Zoom class offered by the synod. Join The Rev. Dr. Amy Lindeman Allen, Indiana Christian Church Associate Professor of New Testament at Christian Theological Seminary (Disciples of Christ) in Indianapolis, Indiana, for a six-week course titled, “Jesus and the Little Children”!

Based on Dr. Allen’s book, The Gifts They Bring: How Children in the Gospels Can Shape Inclusive Ministry (WJK, 2023), sessions will include presentations on the following topics:

The Gift of Participation: Little Children as Proprietors of the Realm of God

The Gift of Proclamation: The Bethlehem Shepherds

The Gift of Advocacy: James and John, Fisherfolk

The Gift of Listening: Mary at the Feet of Jesus

The Gift of Sharing: The Child with the Fish and Loaves

The Gift of Partnership: A Son and His Mother at Nain

The class will meet on six consecutive Tuesday evenings: January 14, 21, 28; February 4, 11, 18, 2025 from 7:00 – 8:15pm ET via Zoom. This course is open to all adults, both laypeople and rostered ministers, and is free of charge. Registration is required and will close on January 6, 2025. Sessions will be recorded and available to those registered for one week.
